Joe Young, col., whose head is frosted by many winters, was assigned before Judge Martin's court Saturday on the charge of stealing a hog. The evidence was strong enough to locate the hog in Joe's pen, and he was bound over to await the action of the circuit court in his case. Failing to make a $500 bond, Joe will remain with Sheriff Story until court. The way of the transgressor is indeed hard.

On the down trip of the Mayflower, the excursion party took in Savannah Monday and Tuesday. The Courier office was honored with a visit by the following gentlemen: W. H. Bodemann, J. W. Ward, Jas. B. J. W. Holt, col., of Sibley, who is by the way, a substantial, good farmer, was in the city Monday and presented the Courier with four well-opened bolls of cotton, gathered from his this years crop. He says he only has a small patch in cotton this year, but it promises a good yield.

Millard Fraley, returned from the Indian Territory last week in time to cast his ballot. Mr. Fraley was in Savannah Sunday, and as usual, he had a crowd of his friends gathered around him listening to his description of the country, and his travels through Oklahoma Territory.

Hon. J. M. Troutt, of Jackson, Tenn., who opposes Congressman T. W. Sims for the nomination for congress in this district, in a primary election to be held throughout this district, Sept. 1, spoke to a fairly good crowd of Democrats and Republicans at the court house Monday. Mr. Sims was not present.

The friends of J. Grady Jones of this place and throughout the county, where he is known, will be glad to learn that he secured the Democratic nomination for the Legislature last week, in his (Hamphreys) county. Mr. Jones, while a mere boy yet in age, is a brilliant young man, and has a bright future before him.

The race for Judge in this, the Ninth judicial circuit, between Hon. Sam Holding, the Democratic nominee, and Fussell, turns out to have been uncomfortably close, but "a miss is as good as a mile," and though his majority is small, it is certain, and Holding is the Judge. His majority in the district, told by returns from the other counties, is 255.

The 15-year-old son of S. W. Owen, living near Swift, was fatally hurt Tuesday of last week by falling in a well, from which he died Thursday of last week. Young Owen's father started to lower him into the well to get a bucket out. The rope broke and he fell 25 or 30 feet into very shallow water and onto a heap of broken stone. Both legs were badly broken and his spine dislocated, beside receiving other bruises.

Our next issue will contain an article on agriculture and the beneficial results from the uses of fertilizers. It appears that the people of our and adjoining counties have begun to realize the importance of growing wheat and other small grain, and that there is quite a number of acres of land in this county, that have been given up to broom-sedge and briars, which, with a little attention and a small amount of fertilizer, can be made to produce many bushels of wheat or oats, and at the same time build up the land. We hope to be able to give our readers some statistics whereby they can see that a good commercial fertilizer will prove a profitable investment. The farmers, upon whom the welfare of the country rests, must be assisted.

Above we give our readers the official returns from the election held in this county Thursday August 4th, by districts, showing the total vote of each candidate. In the judicial race, it will be seen that Mr. Fussell only carried the county over Holding, Democrat, by 94 votes.

The race for Sheriff between Sawner, Rep., and Leeth, Ind., as will be seen, was very close, Sawner's majority only being 49 votes. It required a close count of the official returns to determine who the victor was, and until late Monday evening, the friends of both candidates claimed it. Mr. Sawner made the race for Sheriff once before, only lacking a few votes of being the winner. It will be remembered that Mr. Leeth did not enter the race for Sheriff until a few days before the election. The vote he received shows his universal popularity throughout the county, and he has just cause to feel proud of it.

In the Circuit Clerk's race, L. K. Freeman, Rep., has a clear majority of 581 over J. T. Maddox, Ind. It will be seen that Mr. Freeman leads the Republican ticket in the county by 4 votes.

G. W. Bingham, Rep., can still be found in the Registers office. By a majority of 479 votes over A. L. McKinzie, Ind., the people have said that they want George to register deeds for them the ensuing four years.

B. F. Shelby and E. D. Winbon, Democrats, by a majority of 44 over W. U. Ross and 73 over John Spencer, Republicans, were chosen by the voters of the 4th civil district to fill the office of constable.

D. J. Hughes, Edgar Cherry and T. J. Welch, Democrats, were elected school directors in the 4th, Savannah District, without opposition. The fact that they are capable men to serve the people in that capacity, goes without question.

The latest returns from over the Judicial circuit assures the election of Sam Holding, Democrat over Joseph H. Fussell, Ind., for Circuit Judge by 255 majority.

A. A. Watson whose picture appears in this paragraph, it will be seen, made the landing with 525 majority over his opponent, Mr. Franks, Ind. Mr. Watson has been acting deputy county court clerk for the past two years, and he has made an efficient, painstaking official. Being of a genial, accommodating disposition, his friends and supporters were not confined alone to his party.

For Trustee, R. D. DeFord, Republican, has a majority over E. P. Churchwell, Ind., of 283 votes. Mr. DeFord has only held the office but one term, and has made a good, efficient official. In this race, and the race for Sheriff, the main interest seems to have been centered. The opposing candidates were all good, trustworthy men, and as the returns will show, party lines were lost sight of in some districts and the people voted as their conscience dictated.

In the Circuit Clerk's race, L. K. Freeman, Rep., has a clear majority of 581 over J. T. Maddox, Ind. It will be seen that Mr. Freeman leads the Republican ticket in the county by 4 votes.
